

Welcome to Seminar 7 December, 2017

SHIPPING AND THE ENVIRONMENT – RESEARCH MEETS REALITY

9:30–15:30 at KTH Campus, Teknikringen 10, Stockholm

Chair prof. Karin Andersson, Maritime Environmental Sciences, Chalmers University

09:30 Coffee

10:00 Welcome
CTS board, Brita Saxton, Director General Transport Analysis

10:10 Sea transport research at CTS
Inge Vierth, VTI, and prof. Kevin Cullinane, VTI/Gothenburg University

10:25 Environmental Work in Ports of Stockholm
Gun Rudeberg, Legal Counsel and Head of Environmental Affairs

10:45–12:30 INTERNATIONAL RESERACH

10:45 Reducing GHG emissions from shipping: to be or not to be Harilaos Psaraftis, prof. Technical University of Denmark

11:15 Short break

11:30 Improving energy efficient shipping through regulation
Michele Acciario, assoc. prof. of Maritime Logistics and head of the Logistics Dept. at Kuehne Logistics University, Hamburg

12:00 Use of AIS-data to achieve efficient shipping
Siri Stranden, prof. Norwegian School of Economics, Bergen

12:30–13:30 Lunch

13:30–15:30 SWEDISH RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT

13:30 Towards sustainable shipping
Carl Fagergren, Wallenius Marine AB

13:50 Shipping and air pollution – impacts and measures
Christer Ågren, Air Pollution & Climate Secretariat

14:10 Environmental urban shipping
Karl Garne, Centre for Naval Architecture at Royal Institute of Technology

14:30 Discussion

15:15 Concluding remarks

TO REGISTER, please contact ulrika.dietrichson@vti.se before 17 November 2017

For other information, please contact sandra.gegerfelt@stockholmshamnar.se and inge.vierth@vti.se